Rule Gov't May Force Witnesses to Testify by Promising Immunity

Justice Frankfurter
Delivers Opinion
By Supreme Court

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court ruled today that the government may force witnesses to testify in national security cases by promising them absolute immunity from prosecution.

Justice Felix Frankfurter delivered the 17-page majority opinion. The vote was 7-2, with Justices William O. Douglas and Hugo L. Black dissenting.

The decision held valid the 1954 compulsory immunity law designed to facilitate investigation and punishment of espionage, treason and like crimes.

Under the ruling William Ludwig Ullman, 48, first person to be charged with contempt under the statute, must serve a six-month jail sentence for contempt of court. He refused to testify although promised immunity under the law.

Despite the government's guarantee not to prosecute, the former Treasury Department official refused to testify before a New York grand jury investigating Communist subversion. He had previously been accused by ex-Communist Elizabeth Bentley of being a wartime Soviet spy.

Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell Jr. asked Congress to pass the 1954 law. Under it either the attorney general or Congress may on approval of a federal court, promise freedom from prosecution to a balking witness in exchange for vital testimony.

Normally if a witness thinks his testimony may tend to incriminate him he may remain silent by invoking the Fifth Amendment. But under the new law, if he doesn't talk after being promised immunity, he is subject to trial for contempt.

Ullman's attorney argued that even if he were not prosecuted as a direct result of his testimony he might be punished through loss of his job, public disgrace and prosecution under state laws.

Boy Drowns in Spangler Pond; 4 Drown in Crab Orchard Lake

Father, Two Sons, Third Boy Victims

11-Year-Old Member Of Fishing Party Swims to Shore

HERRIN (Special)—Four persons were drowned and a fifth occupant of a swamped boat swam to the shore of Crab Orchard Lake near here at midnight Saturday.

Dead are:

Prince McSpadden, 44, Herrin. Lex and Rex McSpadden, 10-year-old adopted twin sons of Prince.

Roy Woodis, Jr., 15, of Herrin.

Swimming 75 yards to shore was 11-year-old Jerry Sexton, of Herrin, who tearfully told Coroner A. E. Fluck of the tragedy and they led lake rescue squads to the scene. He pointed out where the boat went down.

The party of five was in a small boat powered with an outboard motor and running trotlines for catfish during the early part of the night, Jerry told the coroner.

Decide To Quit

Just before midnight it was decided to quit fishing and lines were taken up. The boat was in a narrow neck of the lake about 75 yards from shore where the lines had been set, Jerry said. Roy Woodis and the gear were in the bow of the boat. Jerry and the twins were in the middle seat and McSpadden was seated in the stern beside the motor.

"After we paddled around and got all the lines in the boat Mr. McSpadden said he was going to start the motor. I was worried because the front of the boat was so low in the water. The motor started and something must have been wrong as it started too fast. The front of the boat ran under the water.

"The boat filled up before Mr. McSpadden could get the motor stopped and then it upset. I knew the direction to the closest shore and started to swim. I reached shore all o. k. and looked around, but nobody else was there.

Calls For Others

"I quickly pulled off all my clothes and was going to swim back for the others. Then I thought I had better call first. I hollered real loud, but no one answered, so I put on my trousers and ran for help," the 11-year-old told the coroner.

"Help" sought by the boy was a mile away. He arrived at a residence of Crab Orchard Superintendent Eugene Crawford exhausted and unable to talk. Mrs. Crawford wrapped the boy in blankets and applied hot water bottles. It was 45 minutes before chills permitted him to inform the Crawford of the tragedy.

Rescue Crews Alerted

Crawford immediately alerted lake rescue squadrons in Marion, Herrin, Carbondale, Carverville and West Frankfort. These squadrons, composed of men skilled in boats and dragging equipment, rushed to the scene and started dragging at the spot where Jerry said the boat sank.

At 2 a. m. the body of McSpadden was recovered. A short time later the bodies of the twins were found almost simultaneously and another half hour elapsed before the body of the Woodis boy was located.

Coroner Fluck said that although the drownings were accidental beyond any doubt, he would conduct an inquest Monday.

Plan Joint Funeral

The bodies of the victims all are at the Storm Funeral Home in Herrin. Joint funeral services will be held.

McSpadden is survived by the twins' mother, his wife, Nell. There are no other children.

The Woodis boy is survived by his father, Roy Sr. His mother is dead. He is also survived by brothers, Roy, Percy, Paul, Philip, Joe, Bill and Dulane, all of near Herrin, and a sister, Mrs. Anna Fowler, of California.

Time for the funeral services has not been set.

Stevenson Calls Off Vacation; Illinois Official Favors Kefauver

CHICAGO (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson gave up a Florida vacation and prepared today for a flying "stop Kefauver" trip to California.

Stevenson made his sudden change in plans at an emergency meeting at his Chicago headquarters Sunday. He expects to leave Wednesday and final details of his California swing will be hammered out at a staff meeting today.

An aide said Stevenson will probably stop at San Francisco and Los Angeles in an attempt to head off any mounting popularity for Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.).

Stevenson announced he will "work harder than ever" to gain the Democratic presidential nomination after Kefauver whipped him in last week's Minnesota presidential primary.

However, he had hoped to rest up this week in Florida with the youngest of his three sons, John Fell Stevenson.

Stevenson apparently called off his vacation plans on the basis of reports from his backers in California.

The two candidates are matched in California's June 5 presidential primary and Kefauver hurried to the state immediately following his Minnesota victory.

While Stevenson revised his plans, Kefauver made inroads in his home state of Illinois.

John Asher of Paris, Ill., a veteran member of the Illinois Democratic State Central Committee, announced he is leaving the Stevenson camp in favor of Kefauver.

Asher said he checked with voters in 30 downstate Illinois counties and found "overwhelming support for Kefauver over all other candidates."

Stevenson, Illinois' former governor, is unopposed in the state's April 10 presidential preference primary. The state's 25 central committee members are almost solidly behind him, but a few have indicated they might switch to Kefauver.

Michael White Falls Into Water While on Visit

Efforts to Revive Victim After Body Recovered Fail

An eight-year-old Rosiclare lad drowned Saturday afternoon in a pond west of Harrisburg.

He was Michael White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy White of Rosiclare. His body was found in a pond on the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Spangler about a mile and a half west of this city.

Efforts were made for a long time to revive him before he was pronounced dead by a physician called to the scene.

Coroner Elmer M. Gibbons said the boy was found in about eight feet of water after tracks in the mud concentrated a search for him at the pond.

Mr. Gibbons said that the Whites had been to Evansville and en route to their home decided to stop off at the Spangler home for a visit. Mr. White is a brother of Mrs. Spangler.

With Mr. and Mrs. White in the house visiting, the boy played out in the yard and on one occasion Mr. White went out to see how he was getting along. He saw the boy playing with a kitten near the corner of the house and went back inside.

A while later Mr. White went out again, Coroner Gibbons was told, and could not find the boy. The group began searching and when he was not found, it was feared he had fallen in the well.

The fire department was called around 4:30 p. m. and poles with hooks were used in probing the well, without success. The fire department was getting ready to pump out the well when some of the searchers saw tracks leading to the pond and it was decided to determine if he might be there before the well pumping was started.

Willard Fulkerson and Norman Shewmake, who had followed the fire truck out Route 13 to the Spangler place, waded into and swam around in the cold water trying to locate the body and after a while Fulkerson located it about two feet beneath the surface in eight feet of water.

Fulkerson and Shewmake brought the body to shore where the fire department members, who had brought a resuscitator with them, tried until around 5:30 to bring life into the body. At that time a doctor who had been called pronounced the boy dead.

The body was taken to the Hosick funeral home in Rosiclare. He was an only child of the Whites.

Coroner Gibbons said that an inquest into the boy's death would be held at 6:30 tonight at the court house here.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

Drew Pearson Says: Kefauver's Senate Colleagues Did Their Best to Block Him; All of Kefauver's Advisers Urged Him to Stay Out of Minnesota; Stevenson's California Poll Shows Stevenson Slipping.

WASHINGTON—There was considerably more than meets the eye behind the tremendous Kefauver sweep in Minnesota. . . . His senate colleagues threw every possible roadblock into his path. Sen. Lyndon Johnson even conspired to delay the farm vote from Saturday to Monday, so Kefauver would miss the final vote on the farm bill by being in Minnesota to campaign on Monday.

This was arranged at the secret prompting of Sen. Hubert Humphrey, who knew the bad reaction in Minnesota if Kefauver missed the final vote on the farm bill. . . . The tall Tennesseean, however, fooled 'em. He flew all night from Minnesota arriving in Washington at 6:00 a. m. Monday, voted on the farm bill, then flew back to Minnesota Tuesday to be with his supporters as the victory returns came in. . . . Senators who saw Kefauver flabbergasted. "How did you get back from Minnesota?" they said.

Sen. Hubert Humphrey, a good senator, sent a special letter to Minnesota Farm-Labor Democrats in an effort to defeat Kefauver. He warned that his own political future was at stake in the Kefauver-Stevenson vote, urged that Minnesotans vote for Stevenson. They didn't.

Kefauver financed his Minnesota campaign on a shoestring. He got $8,750 from his Washington campaign headquarters. . . . He collected from a few close friends, and collected between $7,000 in dimes and dollars by passing the hat in Minnesota. . . . Kefauver could afford only one telecast. Stevenson spent an estimated $100,000, shelled out money for considerable TV time. . . . Eisenhower forces spent four times as much money on radio-TV as Kefauver, got only 50 per cent of the combined Democratic balloting.

Inside fact is that Kefauver advisers urged him to stay out. Col. William A. Roberts, his treasurer, did likewise. He told Estes he couldn't possibly make the race unless he had $25,000. "And we haven't got it," said Roberts. . . . "God will provide," replied Kefauver, and went ahead.

POLITICAL SOUL-SEARCHERS
A lot of soul-searching took place after the Kefauver sweep in Minnesota. It took place on several sides—some by the Republicans, a lot more by Stevenson leaders, perhaps most by conservative Democrats of the Stop-Kefauver school. Here are some of the things they searched their souls about:

SOUL-SEARCHER NO. 1 — The Republicans. Their vote in Minnesota was less than half the total Democratic vote. This could be explained by the fact that there was no real GOP contest. On the other hand, Eisenhower boosters used four times as much radio-TV time as Stevenson. So a haunting fear faces GOP leaders that the farm revolt goes deeper than they thought, that the Republicans who crossed over in hordes to vote for Kefauver may stay crossed over in November.

SOUL-SEARCHER NO. 2 — The Adlai-ites. They now face some tough primaries, the toughest being Florida and California. In both, Stevenson and Kefauver will be campaigning against each other, face-to-face. The situation in California is already shaping up like that in Minnesota where Adlai's boys got in early, lined up the chief leaders of the Democratic party, only to have this backfire.

In California, the staunchest Estes-ites of 1952 began jumping off his handwagon for what they considered a sure winner—Adlai. Jimmy Roosevelt jumped. Congressmen Chet Holifield, Clair Egle, Fay Porter, all jumped from Kefauver to Stevenson. Only a small corps of devoted loyalists with no money and little influence stuck with Estes. Like Minnesota, the California party bosses were all for Adlai.

From that inauspicious start, however, Kefauver stock in California has zoomed. Private polls taken by Stevenson in southern California showed the two candidates running neck and neck—and this was four days before the Minnesota victory. In less populous northern California, Stevenson was ahead, but how he rates after Kefauver's Minnesota victory is anybody's guess.

Kefauver has been in California and Stevenson leaders, despite their power, prestige, and ample funds, aren't happy.

SOUL-SEARCHER NO. 3 — The Stop-Estes Democrats. They are led by Sen. Lyndon Johnson, Speaker Sam Rayburn, and Sen. Richard Russell of Georgia. They used to include ex-President Truman, but Truman now says he's for the best "vote-getter, and he appears to mean it.

The Stop-Estes Democrats are inspired partly by personal jealousy, partly by the fact that Kefauver

Thinking It Over—For Lent

By Robert Dieffenbacher, D.D.

Written for NEA Service

There were a lot of opportunists in Jerusalem when Jesus made His final entry into the city.

Merchants or racketeers with no interest in the religious significance of the Passover brought their so-called sacrifices to sell to indifferent worshippers. The salesfolk moved within the temple itself to sell their goods.

The casual worshippers had brought nothing from their own worldly goods to sacrifice in the symbolic service of giving. They paused in the foyer of the temple to purchase commercial sacrifices which meant nothing.

Jesus walked into the temple on the Monday of Holy Week and saw the mockery and sham which was being made a religion. With a fearless sweep of His strong carpenter's arm, He overthrew the traders' tables and drove both the racketeers and the insincere buyers from the house of worship.

"My house shall be a house of prayer," He said. "Ye have made it a den of robbers." Both those who bought and those who sold were robbing the temple of its holiness and of its religious significance.

We must not rob our worship of its spiritual significance by making a mockery of prayer. We must pray to God and not to impress men. We must suffer of ourselves,

Flash bulletin from Mobilgas Economy Run

FORD WINS IN ECONOMY TOO!

V-8 WINS CLASS A

In this year's Economy Run a new Ford V-8, with Fordomatic was the official victor over every car in its field, with a winning average of 47.7643 ton-miles per gallon. This means that the sturdier, heavier Ford carried more weight, with greater gas economy per pound, than any car in its field.

This latest Ford victory was scored over a rough and rigorous 1,468.8-mile route running from Los Angeles to Colorado Springs. The winning Ford threaded its way over the tough and twisting course averaging better than 40 mph. Through the heat of Death Valley and over the chilling height of an 11,000-foot mountain peak . . . through the gas-eating stop-and-go of city traffic and over the straight-line open road . . . Ford proved anew its traditional reputation for economical performance.

The winning Ford was a regular-production model taken right from the assembly line and officially impounded until the starter's gun sounded. It was no different than thousands of '56 Fords you see on the road and in dealers' showrooms. This proves that Ford, the Performance, Style and Safety leader, leads in Economy, too! That adds up to four big reasons why the '56 Ford is worth more when you buy it, while you drive it, and when you sell it, too!

The "ton-mile" formula is used by contest officials to insure equal chance for all cars in each class regardless of size or weight. Ton-miles per gallon equals the car weight (including passengers) in tons, multiplied by the number of miles traveled, divided by number of gallons of gasoline consumed.

Inventor of Traffic Light Dies

CLEARWATER, Fla. (U.P.)—William Lewis Potts, the man who invented the traffic light, died here Sunday in a nursing home. He was 71. Potts first devised a manually operated traffic light in 1920 and one year later installed an automatic light in downtown Detroit. He also is credited with being one of the early designers of a system for radio-equipped cars.

Nearly Nude
At birth, a black bear cub weighs from nine to 12 ounces, is about eight inches long, blind, and covered with a dark hair so thin that it is practically naked.

Rapid Growth
Research reveals that the pocket gopher's incisor teeth grow at the rate of 46 inches a year, or almost an inch a week. Inciscent gnawing keeps them worn down for practical use.

Liked Ginger
Queen Victoria is credited with popularizing preserved ginger. The pungent candied spice from China, a novelty in her day, was so well liked by her that she served it at state banquets.

Students Complete 120-Mile Canoe Trip

CARBONDALE, Ill. (U.P.)—Two Southern Illinois university students returned to classes today after making a 120-mile canoe trip down the Big Muddy River last week.

Robert Gallo, Christopher, and James Smith, St. Louis, put their canoe into the river east of Sesser last Wednesday. They reached the confluence of the Big Muddy and Mississippi rivers near Aldridge about noon Saturday, the time they had estimated they would complete the trip.

An SIU department sponsored the trip to survey the river for possible recreational trips this summer. The students said they found several good camping sites along the way but also had to make 13 portages around brush piles and fallen trees in the river.

While they heard the noise made as the men hauled the 300-pound safe toward their car. Although unarmed, he started for the pair of thieves.

Bobby Shantz in Top Form As A's Beat Senators; Yankees Blank Dodgers, 5-0

By United Press

Bobby Shantz, 140 pounds of spirit and determination, appears to be winning his comeback fight and this good news for the Kansas City Athletics could mean trouble for the American League's top teams in 1956.

Shantz has had enough miseries with his left arm since 1953 to make him quit baseball. But the 5-foot, 6-inch Pennsylvanian apparently never heard of the word "quit" and right now he looks like Kansas City's No. 1 pitcher.

Bobby went six innings against the Washington Senators Sunday and showed some of the stuff that made him the American League's "Most Valuable Player" in 1952 when he won 24 games. He scattered seven Senator hits, giving up one run on Jerry Snyder's single and a double by Roy Sievers.

Bobby's teammates made it easy on him and themselves by battering Bob Wiesler, the left handed Washington got from the New York Yankees, for six runs on five hits and two errors in the first inning.

three sixth inning runs at Bradenton to down the Detroit Tigers, 5-2. Bobby Thomson collected two doubles and a single and Del Crandall three singles to lead the winners.

Earl Averill, Cleveland's rookie catcher, singled Al Smith home with the ninth inning run that gave the Indians a 4-3 victory over the New York Giants at Tucson, Ariz. Jim Busby hit a three-run homer for the Indians and Willie Mays hit a two-run homer for the losers.

At Los Angeles, the Chicago Cubs made 13 hits while beating the Baltimore Orioles, 10-5. The Cubs got all their runs off Bill Wright. Don Hoak got three hits and Ernie Banks collected two to boost his average to .415 while pacing the Cub attack.

McKendree All-Stars Play Independents at Galatia Tuesday Night

The McKendree college All-Stars, a good basketball aggregation, will meet the Galatia Independents at eight o'clock tomorrow night in the Galatia gymnasium.

The Independents have rounded up some fine talent to meet the college boys. They include all-star Garrison Newsome and his brother, Vincent, Joe Upchurch, Sammy Duane and Bob Orto, a trio of the finest stars of the past few years at Galatia, and Ronnie Culbreth and Frank Blackman, who were outstanding at Carrier Mills; and a 6-6 lad named Dahne from Effingham.

Rich Herron and Costello, two all-conference players, are on the McKendree team.

SIU Student 'Stuck' With Camel Saddles

CARBONDALE, Ill. (U.P.)—A student at Southern Illinois university has a good buy, if anyone needs his wares.

He's selling genuine camel saddles.

The student is Razouk Malik, 26, a native of Lebanon. His uncle, former Lebanese ambassador to the United States, Charles Malik, sent the saddles to America to help pay the youth's college expenses. Now, he's stuck with them.

Razouk, who says the saddles make good television seats, says he will sell them to anyone for $30 C.D.

East St. Louis Fireman Suffers Broken Back

Lamkin Beagle Wins First in Field Trial

Run So Snooks, a Beagle owned by Eugene Lamkin of Harrisburg, won first place in the Little Egypt Beagle club's derby field trial held yesterday at Fairfield. Seventeen little hounds took part in the 13-inch class.

This is the second trophy won by Snooks in three weeks. The other was in a sanction trial at Fairfield in which 39 hounds took part.

Shawnee Sickle, owned by John C. Coffee of Shawneetown, also was a high contender in the Little Egypt trial. He came back fourth high in the second series and kept his placing to the end of the trial.

Snooks and Sickle were handled by their owners, assisted by Charles Wilson of Shawneetown.

Hawks Need One Victory to Win Western Playoffs

By United Press

The St. Louis Hawks, who need only one more victory, remain heavy favorites to win the western playoff finals in the National Basketball Assn. today, but it's anybody's guess who'll win in the east.

The Hawks grabbed a quick lead by winning the first two games of their best-of-five series against Fort Wayne, and weren't hurt too badly by their 107-84 setback in the third game at Fort Wayne Sunday. The fourth game Tuesday night is on their home court.

But the eastern finals now are tied at one game each after Syracuse's 122-116 victory Sunday over the Philadelphia Warriors at Syracuse. The third game is in Philadelphia Tuesday night.

Fort Wayne rallied from the brink of oblivion to remain alive in the playoffs. George Yardley had 19 points to top the five Pistons who scored in double figures. Alex Hannum led St. Louis with 18 as Bob Pettit was held to 16, including only two field goals.

The 240 points of the Hawks' game set a new playoff record, topping the mark of 231 set by a Minneapolis-St. Louis game in the first round of last season's Western Division playoffs.

The Warriors showed a two-man attack with Neil Johnston getting 43 points for a new War Memorial auditorium record and Paul Arizin adding 37. But six Nats scored in double figures, led by Adolph Schayes with 33.

U. S. corn pickers increased in number by 51 per cent from 1950 to 1954.

Crowd of 1,700 Enjoys Wrestling Program Sponsored by Lions Club

The grunt and groan boys and girls came to town Saturday night and put on wrestling matches before 1,700 paying fans at Davenport gym with the climax being the disqualification of the big brute, Hans Schmidt, in the feature event of the evening.

The wrestling program was sponsored by the Harrisburg Lions club, which came out ahead financially on the program. The affair was enjoyed greatly by almost everyone there, judging from the comments Saturday night and Sunday by spectators.

In the feature match Bill Melby got the nod over the 6-6, 249-pound Schmidt, who has been seen countless times by those who watch the wrestling matches over television.

Melby looked younger and was faster at 229 pounds, but Schmidt was the stronger—and meaner.

Big Hans won the first fall in five minutes and 36 seconds and Melby tied up the match by making Schmidt give up with an abdominal stretch in 14 minutes.

Conclusion came when 20 minutes and six seconds had elapsed. At that point Schmidt got Melby's head caught in the twisted ring ropes and continued to pound the hapless Melby despite the referee's efforts to get the big guy away. When Schmidt continued to ignore the referee's warning he was disqualified and Melby had won the match.

In the semifinal, between two blonde females, pretty Rose Roman won over chunky Ada Ash in 11 minutes and 10 seconds, much to the delight of the fans.

In the preliminary tag match the favorites won, too. They were Luis Martinez and Seymour Koenig, who lost the first fall but came back to win the next couple.

Fifth Annual East-West Shrine Game Tonight

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (U.P.)—The fifth annual East-West Shrine game for crippled children rated as a tossup today, even though All-America Bill Russell of San Francisco was playing with the West.

The experts figured that no matter who won tonight, it would be a tremendous game, pitting 20 of the nation's top players against each other.

A slight edge, by those who would give one, went to the West and Russell. He's teamed with K. C. Jones, the other San Francisco All-American, on a squad headed by Floyd Stahl of Ohio State.

The East didn't have a Russell but boasted the NCAA scoring leader, All-America Darrell Floyd of Furman, and a host of other talent, including All-America Si Green of Duquesne. The West also has All-America Robin Freeman of Ohio State.

Fight Results

By United Press

MEXICO CITY — Raul Macias, 117 1/2, Mexico, knocked out Leo Espinosa, 115 1/2, Philippines (10) — retained NBA bantam - weight championship.

Soviet Police Boss Cuts Short Visit to Britain

LONDON (AP)—Soviet Secret Police Chief Ivan Serov is cutting short his visit to Britain because of violent protests against his coming here, it was reported today.

London newspapers greeted Serov with cries of "butcher" and "odious thug" on his arrival here to check security arrangements for the visit of Premier Nikolai Bulganin and Communist leader Nikita S. Khrushchev.

He had planned to remain in London until they arrive next month but has decided to leave early so British public opinion can calm down before his bosses arrive, reliable sources reported.

Former Soviet Premier Georgi Malenkov, has decided to cut short his visit to the north of England and will return here Wednesday, Soviet sources said. It was believed he could confer with Serov before the police boss leaves for Moscow.

Serov picknicked Sunday on a beach at Brighton with his bodyguards. He told newsmen there were only a "few working days left" and that he was going back to Moscow. He said the Russian leaders would stay at Claridges, one of London's swankiest.

Malenkov was in Blackpool where he saw his first trailer and described it as "cozy." And in Fleetwood where he visited the home of a power worker and cuddled a 13-month-old baby with cries of "goo goo."

But he had harsh words for the British custom of heating houses with coal and said in Russia houses were heated with waste heat from factories and power stations.
